

Our Dear, Gracious Heavenly Father,

There are so many things that we have to be thankful for this year.

We thank Thee, O God, for sending Your Son into this world. For Him shedding His blood on Calvary and conquering Death at His resurrection, so that we may have the chance at Salvation.

We thank Thee, O God, for our families. We may not always get along with them, but they are precious to us.

We thank Thee, O God, that we have homes in which to live and beds upon which to lay our heads, and food to nourish us by.

We thank Thee for this free land where we do not have walls to keep people in or out. Where we have the right to speak our concerns, and to worship Thee freely and without fear.

We thank Thee, O God, even for the trials and tribulations that we experience in our lives, knowing that You will use them for our good.

We thank Thee for the health we enjoy and for all that we are able to do.

We thank Thee, O Lord, for this day. A day that has been set aside so that we, as a nation, can reflect upon all of the Blessings You have given to us. For the Grace You have poured down upon us.

And, Lord, we pray that You will continue to Bless us and this nation of ours. To watch over us, not only as a nation, but individually as well.

In all these things and many more, we offer Thee, O God, our thanks through Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour.

Amen
